

Interdisciplinary - One Day State Level Seminar on India-China Relations : Looking Back-Looking Ahead

Adarsh Vidya Prasarak Sanstha's Adarsh College of Arts & Commerce, Kulgaon-Badlapur organized One Day State Level Interdisciplinary Seminar on Thursday, the 30th January 2014 on India-China Relations : Looking Back-Looking Ahead. Primary Objective of the Seminar was to deliberate on contemporary issues relating to India-China relations.

The inaugural session began at 10.00 am & Dr. Shailendra Devlankar, eminent speaker & writer on Political issues, was the Chief Guest. Dr. Devlankar was welcomed by Principal Dr. Vaidehi Daptardar. In her welcome address Principal Dr. Vaidehi Daptardar stated that it is necessary to keep watch on India-China Relations as both Nations are upcoming world powers.

Dr. Shailendra Devlankar delivered a keynote address & he congratulated the college for organizing Inter Disciplinary Seminar on such important issue. He further stated that it is necessary for India to have foreign policy independent of domestic policy. He also said that both India & China cannot afford war due to increasing trade between the two. He further explained that new group of Nations is emerging in Asia to restrain China from adopting aggressive policy towards its neighboring countries. Dr. Shailendra Devlankar's speech was very spontaneous and articulate.

2ND SESSION

Prof. Sachin Pardhe of Department of Social Science of University of Mumbai was Guest speaker for Second Technical Session of the Seminar. His presentation was devoted to Geo-Political Aspects of India-China Relations. He demonstrated with the help of Maps that Geographical factors are responsible for dispute between India and China and imbalance in natural and political boundary must be corrected to have peaceful relations. His presentation was precise but interesting.

3RD SESSION

Dr. Ankush Sawant was the Guest Speaker for 3rd session of the Seminar. He reviewed India-China relationships from historical perspective. He concluded the session with the remarks that foreign policy of China should not be relied upon by India.

4TH SESSION

This paper presentation session was chaired by Principal Dr. Vaidehi Daptardar and Prof. Sachin Pardhe helped her in assessing research papers presented by the delegates.

The Co-ordinator Prof. Mandar Paranjape offered Vote of Thanks after the feedbacks given by the delegates. The Valedictory session was presided by Principal Dr. Vaidehi Daptardar.